NEW DIRECTORY OF ONLINE RESOURCES

CSG Press has issued the Ninth Edition of the Directory of Online Information Resources.

The Directory describes more than 350 of the most popular and useful data bases that are commercially available online in the United States and Canada. An expanded subject and source index, plus a complete list of names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all data base vendors and producers are included. Pricing information for each data base is given when available.

The Ninth Edition is available at $18.50 per copy. Single orders must be accompanied by payment. The Directory, is also available on a two-year subscription basis (four issues) for $48.00. Orders should be sent to: CSG Press, 11301 Rockville Pike, Kensington, MD 20895.

DIRECTORY OF SOFTWARE TOOLS AVAILABLE

Software Tools Directory enables users to readily identify software to fulfill specific needs, compatible with an intended operating environment. The December 1981, two-volume guide describes software tools for micro-, mini-, midi- and large mainframe machines under varying environments. Scope excludes tool packages normally provided as program products or requiring purchase of standalone resources.

The Directory has eight main sections, preceded by an essential, explanatory introduction which details usage procedures. Next, the tool taxonomy section organizes tools by product status and primary function. Main directory sections then categorize software according to five tool headings: definition, development, maintenance, management, and systems. Information is presented in standardized fact sheet format including use information, supplier and price.

Software Tools Directory is prepared by Reifer Consultants, Inc., 2733 Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 203, Torrance, CA 90505; telephone, (213) 530-2274. Subscription cost is: first year, $199, following, $125; two yearly updates are provided and Reifer Consultants will answer subscriber queries on tools listed in the directory.

NEW LOMOND BOOK

Scheduled for July 15 publication is Managing the Large Organization: Issues, Ideas, Precepts, Innovations, by David S. Brown, professor, researcher, lecturer and consultant. The book deals comprehensively with the unique management challenges which must be met in large organizations and suggests objective, insightful solutions to the problems which inherently exist.

The book deals with six main areas of concern for the manager: A Theory of Managing for Our Times, Problems of Size and Complexity, Organizing and Organizations, The Individual: The Basic Building Block, Managing and Leading, and Looking Ahead. An index is provided.

David S. Brown. Managing the Large Organization: Issues, Ideas, Precepts, Innovations. Lomond Publications Incorporated, P.O. Box 88, Mt. Airy, MD 21771. 1982. 307 pp. $27.50. ISBN 0-912338-31-8 (clothbound); ISBN 0-912338-34-2 (microfiche).
